Treasure and Magic Valley Family Shuttle to JJC-St. Anthony and JCC-Lewiston

This is a one-day shuttle from the Treasure and Magic Valley areas to JCC-St. Anthony (JCCS) and JCC-Lewiston (JCCL).

The family shuttle is limited in seats and will be offered according to request date, frequency of use, and availability.

THE CONCEPT

The Family Shuttle is a program to support family engagement to strengthen and maintain family bonds. Currently, the shuttle is only offered to Treasure and Magic Valley parents and guardians whose youth are placed at JCCS or JCCL.

THE PLAN

One-day trip (2 break stops—round trip).

Shuttles will be scheduled quarterly with no trips planned during the winter season.

At least two JSCs and/or accompanying support staff will be on the shuttle. They will be available to address, educate, or assist you with any program and aftercare planning needs and issues.

You will receive an information packet about the shuttle boarding and departure location, van and visit rules, and a schedule from the Family Shuttle Coordinator (FSC).

You will board the shuttle at a designated location in Boise.

Shuttle will make one stop in Twin Falls or Burley for restroom and food and then continue to JCCS.

Lunch will be provided by the IDJC.

Shuttle will make one stop in Twin Falls or Burley for restroom and food and then continue to Boise.

You will depart from the boarding location upon arrival in Boise.

THE COST

There is no cost to family members to ride the Family Shuttle.

Meals —The IDJC will provide a meal. Snacks or other purchased during the trip will be at your cost.

THE SCHEDULING

Adults only and must be an approved contact.

First come, first served with at least one week advanced notice to reserve a seat. Maximum of two seats per family. You may place your name on a waiting list for any extra available seats if additional adult family members are interested in going to JCCS or JCCL.

Your JSC will contact the FSC to reserve seats.

You may cancel your seats by contacting your JSC as soon as possible. That JSC will notify the FSC. This will allow families on the wait list to accept or decline the open seats.

The FSC will send the passenger list 48 hours prior to departure to your JSC to confirm the seat reservations with you.
